Chapter 1 by Lauren

Then she remembered the key in her pocket-- the one she kicked-up yesterday in the park from the stones beneath the swing set. Well, why not? It's worth a shot. She turned the key in the lock, felt the tumblers drop into place. She opened the door. To her surprise, she saw the brightest light, so bright it was blinding her. For a minute she couldn't see anything. As she waited for her eyes to adjust, she stood there. What can be beyond the bright light? Suddenly as her eyes started to adjust she saw all the horrid things the light was blinding her from.

Chapter 2 by Rachel Griffiths

The creatures from every nightmare ever seemed to be there, horrid clowns, scary monsters, old dummies walking by themselves, people in masks, countless dead bodies. How is this supposed to help find my brother?
